

Holiday Decor For Your Home

Plenty of ideas below for fun ways to decorate your home this season and spread the holiday cheer!

- ☐ Layer different greenery like pine, spruce and juniper on a mantel, the dining table, staircase banister, over a doorway, etc.
- ☐ Incorporate birch twigs, winterberry and silver-covered pinecones for additional sparkle in the green decor
- ☐ Sweeten up your home with a few Christmas roses (that belong in the "hellebore" plant family)
- ☐ Also go for the classic red poinsettia plant to decorate tabletops
- ☐ Add seasonal scents with candles and decorative cinnamon sticks
- ☐ Instead of the traditional red/green combo, consider incorporating metallic tones for plates, napkin holders, table scape decor, etc.
- ☐ Hang some oversized snowflakes
- ☐ Try putting two stacked wreaths on the front door instead of one
- ☐ Display holiday cards from your family/friends
- ☐ Provide bowls with Christmas treats in different rooms (on living room side table, the dining table, in the entrance hallway, etc.)
- ☐ Dangle candy canes
- ☐ If you have a bar or bar cart, dress it up!
- ☐ Glue some shiny round ornaments together to create a christmas wreath
- ☐ Change out the traditional garland with paper bells to line your stair banister or mantel
- ☐ Offer a glass vase full of nuts, kumquats, cranberries and more fruity/nutty treats
- ☐ Use candles & flower vases instead of garland on the dining table, side table, mantel, etc.
- ☐ Use unexpected materials like feathers mixed in with the garland

- ☐ Hang tassels not just from windows, but also door knobs
- ☐ Incorporate candle-wreaths in your tablescape
- ☐ Create a birch wreath
- ☐ Create a plaid backdrop for wall space
- ☐ Make a small ornament tree on sidetables
- ☐ Decorate the home with hanging family photos, like on the staircase banister
- ☐ Add some firewood, bits of garland and a few small christmas lights into a plant pot for a new way to bring the outdoors inside
- ☐ Turn wooden logs into candle holders
- ☐ Build a hot cocoa station
- ☐ Create a wreath with star anise
- ☐ Use fruit as tablescape accents, like pomegranates, apples, and oranges
- ☐ Hang a gingerbread garland
- ☐ Make crafty snowflake coasters out of felt
- ☐ Display a gingerbread house
- ☐ Display season phrases
- ☐ Make easy paper mache Christmas trees
- ☐ Repurpose a cake stand to display holiday decor like ornaments, candles, small plants, etc
